

1) DANGER! You or someone in your family forgot to pack their medications in the emergency kit and had not written down the number of your doctor or pharmacy.

6) DANGER! You thought you were in the clear and forgot to check the NHC for an entire day. Overnight, what was a tropical storm became a CATEGORY 2 HURRICANE!

2) DANGER! A FLOOD WATCH has been issued and you went to go hang out with your friends because you had NO idea this storm was getting closer.

7) DANGER! You and your family waited too late to evacuate, got stuck in a HUGE traffic jam, and ran out of gas.

3) DANGER! You got separated from your family, did not have your cell phone, and did not have your written emergency contact numbers with you.

8) DANGER! You have no idea what flood zone you live in or anything about whether your home is built on top of what used to be a wetland.

4) DANGER! You and your family did not download the FEMA app to receive hazard alerts!

9) DANGER! You've never learned to swim or keep yourself safe in the water.

5) DANGER! You waded or drove into a flooded street and are now being swept down the street by fast moving water.

10) DANGER! You didn't know what it means when a HURRICANE WARNING is made and kept on planning your birthday party.

11) DANGER! You didn't check the weather three times a day! 	16) DANGER! You think a Category 3 hurricane won't be a whole lot more dangerous than a Category 1.
12) DANGER! You said, "Whatever, we'll be fine when you knew a hurricane was coming!" 	17) DANGER! You've never noticed if the storm drains near your home are blocked..
13) DANGER! You are uncertain about what the NHC Track Forecast Cone even means. 	18) DANGER! You try to call instead of text to reach your emergency contact and the call won't go through..
14) DANGER! You don't know THE THREE QUESTIONS to ask to increase your resilience in a hazardous situation. 	19) DANGER! You think it's perfectly safe to wade into and through a flooded street.
15) DANGER! You think a Category 1 hurricane isn't going to be a big deal and you do nothing to prepare. 	20) DANGER! You don't pay any attention to the phase of the moon or the tide phase on a rainy day and head out on a trip.
